To Whom It May Concern:

The McWilliams family has truly touched the life of my family and our church. Whether they are singing, speaking, dancing, or ministering one on one, the McWilliams inspire everyone they encounter to greater servanthood. Through life's ups and downs they have consistently shown great faith in their journey to fulfill Christ's purpose in their lives. Their family "blend" of harmony will inspire your church to rise in worship. As the pastor of the church they call home, I give my complete endorsement to this wonderful family.

Sincerely,
