Dear Gail:

Thanks for sharing with our entire team last Monday. Each person benefited greatly from your presentation. We all needed the shot in the arm you provided as well as the challenge you gave us. It was awesome!

Gail, we all agreed with Zig's comments to you following your program. You really do remove all reasons for a "personal pity party!"

I would be happy to recommend you any time. Your presentation style, your message, and your heart for people are needed in corporate America! From listening to your presentations, any group will be assured of receiving a message that is well prepared, well delivered and well received. Let me know how I can assist.

Once again, thank you for the positive impact that you have had on Ziglar Training Systems. Let me know when your calendar is free so that we can schedule you again.

Knock 'em alive...
